25X1 4. [redacted] Met with Mr. Richard G. Fuller, Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee Staff, concerning Senator 25X1 Olin D. Johnston's (D. S. Car.) referral of the employment application of [redacted] and advised him that we would be forwarding a "reject" letter to the Senator tomorrow. Mr. Fuller indicated that although Mr. Gullledge, Staff Director who is handling this matter, is away until the first of the week, he is confident that such a letter would create no problem for the Senator. See Journal item of 26 October 1964.

25X1 5. [redacted] Was advised by the office of Senator 25X1
Edmund Muskie that Mr. George Mitchell, the Senator's Executive Assistant, will not be returning to the city until the first of the week. Further advice to the Senator's office concerning [redacted] will be held in abeyance until that time. [redacted] has been so advised. 25X1

25X1 6. [redacted] Miss Kennedy in the office of Senator 25X1 Randolph advised that [redacted] had been in touch with their office and had requested arrangements be made for him to meet with John S. Warner 25X1 in connection [redacted] We have talked with [redacted] in 25X1
the past and further discussions will be fully coordinated with appropriate 25X1 Agency elements. Arrangements were made for a meeting on 9 November at 10:30 in the Senator's office.
